Austrian Road Hard Loop

With CTW Cycling to Austria, form nowhere to be found. You'll leave your form somewhere in the Austrian hills and come home with nothing but a memory of it. 120 kilometres, 1,500 metres of climbing and unbelievably smooth Austrian tarmac. Come and find out how fast the pros from CTW Cycling Team really fly.

You start out gently from Lipno, rolling along the reservoir shore – enjoy it, because the calm ends the moment you cross the border at Aigen. A descent into the Mühl valley drops you down to Haslach, the lowest point of the whole ride. But everything you coast down, Austria charges back with interest:
